FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LEADING ECONOMISTS AND POLICYMAKERS TO DISCUSS DEBT, DEFICITS, AND FINANCIAL INSTABILITY AT THE LEVY ECONOMICS INSTITUTE’S 21ST ANNUAL HYMAN P. MINSKY CONFERENCE, IN NEW YORK CITY, APRIL 11–12

NEW YORK, N.Y.— From April 11 to 12, the Levy Economics Institute of Bard College will gather top policymakers, economists, and analysts at the 21st Annual Hyman P. Minsky Conference on the State of the U.S. and World Economies to discuss the ongoing effects of the global financial crisis on the real economy and examine proposed and recently enacted policy responses. The conference, “Debt, Deficits, and Financial Instability,” is being organized by the Levy Institute with support from the Ford Foundation, and will take place on Wednesday and Thursday, April 11–12, at the Ford Foundation’s headquarters, 320 East 43 Street in New York City.

Participants include Esther L. George, president and CEO, Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City; Andrea Enria, chairperson, European Banking Authority; Peter Praet, member, executive board, and chief economist, European Central Bank; Martin J. Gruenberg, acting chairman, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; Paolo Nogueira Batista Jr., executive director for Brazil, International Monetary Fund; Adam Posen, senior fellow, Petersen Institute for International Economics, and external member, Monetary Policy Committee, Bank of England; Joseph E. Stiglitz, professor, Columbia University; Bruce C. N. Greenwald, professor, Columbia University; Christine M. Cumming, first vice president, Federal Reserve Bank of New York; J. Nellie Liang, director, Office of Financial Stability and Research, Federal Reserve Board; Gillian Tett, U.S. managing editor, Financial Times; Louis Uchitelle, economics writer, The New York Times; Deborah Solomon, member, editorial board, Bloomberg View; Peter Coy, economics editor, Bloomberg Businessweek; Justin Lahart, economics reporter, The Wall Street Journal; Yalman Onaran, senior writer, Bloomberg News, and author of Zombie Banks; and Martin Wolf, columnist, Financial Times.

The conference will address, among other issues, the challenge to global growth represented by the eurozone debt crisis; the impact of the credit crunch on the economic and financial markets outlook; the sustainability of the U.S. economic recovery in the absence of support from monetary and fiscal policy; reregulation of the financial system and the design of a new financial architecture; and the larger implications of the debt crisis for U.S. economic policy, and for the international financial and monetary system as a whole. The conference will include presentations by Jan Kregel, Levy Institute and Tallinn Technical University; Dimitri B. Papadimitriou, president, Levy Institute; Luis A. Ubiñas, president, Ford —continued—

The Levy Economics Institute of Bard College, founded in 1986 through the generous support of the late Bard College trustee Leon Levy, is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, public policy research organization. The Institute is independent of any political or other affiliation, and encourages diversity of opinion in the examination of economic policy issues while striving to transform ideological arguments into informed debate.

The Ford Foundation is an independent, nonprofit grant-making organization. For more than half a century it has worked with courageous people on the frontlines of social change worldwide, guided by its mission to strengthen democratic values, reduce poverty and injustice, promote international cooperation, and advance human achievement. With headquarters in New York, the foundation has offices in Latin America, Africa, the Middle East, and Asia.
