

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Fernando J. Cardim de Carvalho on Wednesday, May 16, 2018.

Senior Scholar Fernando J. Cardim de Carvalho taught Macroeconomics and Latin America Finance courses in the Levy Institute's M.S. program. His wisdom, amazing sense of humor, excellent music taste, and incredible charisma will forever remain in our hearts. Prof. Cardim was emeritus professor of economics at the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro and the former chairman of the Brazilian National Association of Graduate Schools in Economics (ANPEC).

He worked as a consultant to both public institutions and financial industry associations, including the Central Bank of Brazil, the Brazilian National Bank for Economic and Social Development (BNDES), the Central Statistical Office of Brazil (IBGE), and the National Association of Financial Institutions of Brazil (Anbima), as well as NGOs such as IBASE (Brazil) and ActionAid USA. Cardim de Carvalho's work has been published in, among other journals, the Cambridge Journal of Economics, Banca Nazionale del Lavoro Quarterly Review, International Journal of Political Economy, Intervention, Brazilian Journal of Political Economy, and Journal of Post Keynesian Economics, of which he was associate editor. He wrote several books, including Mr. Keynes and the Post Keynesians (Edward Elgar, 1992) and Liquidity Preference and Monetary Economics (Routledge, 2015).
