

LEVY ECONOMICS INSTITUTE OF BARD COLLEGE

Working Paper Collection Vol. 2, Nos. 527–612 October 2010 Release

— About the Collection

The Working Papers series presents in-progress research by Levy Institute scholars and conference participants. These documents cover areas of the Institute's research programs, such as the macroeconomic performance of the U.S. and world economies, the effects of wealth distribution on living standards, and the impact that gender disparity has on the economy.
